The Molecular Targets and Cancer Therapeutics mailing list of the American Association for Cancer Research (AACR) is available for rent to organizations wishing to send approved materials to attendees. A copy of the intended mailing material(s) must be sent with your completed order form for approval. List rental is for a one-time use only. Upon receipt of the correct paperwork, AACR will process your list selection(s) and transmit the requested mailing lists electronically within 7 to 10 business days. Due to AACR policy, list rental does not contain email addresses or phone numbers.

Submit requests to Ashley Kennedy, by email at Mailinglists@aacr.org, phone 215-446-7132, or fax 267-765-1063.

1) Company Requesting List: ______________________________
   ___ Final mailing draft attached
   ___ Agreement attached

2) Indicate the type of organization for which the mailing list will be used (provide proof of nonprofit status documentation from the IRS):
   _____ For-profit organization ($425 per thousand addresses)  _____ Nonprofit organization ($300 per thousand addresses)

3) Indicate membership selection:
   _____ All members  _____ U.S. and Canadian members
   _____ U.S. members  _____ International members only

4) Billing contact name and phone: __________________________________________________________
   Billing address: _________________________________________________________________________
   Email: ________________________________________________________________________________

5) The membership list can be sent by email to a third-party mailing house or directly to the purchasing company/organization electronically.

   Projected Mail Date: _________________________________________________________________
   Shipping Contact Name and Phone: _________________________________________________
   Third party email (if applicable): _________________________________________________