AWARD SUMMARY

The AACR and Bristol-Myers Squibb established this award in 1996 to recognize outstanding achievements in clinical cancer research. It honors Dr. Joseph H. Burchenal, Honorary Member and Past President of the AACR, and a major figure in clinical cancer research.

The winner of the 21st Annual AACR Joseph H. Burchenal Memorial Award for Outstanding Achievement in Clinical Cancer Research will give a 50-minute lecture during the AACR Annual Meeting 2016 in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA (April 16-20, 2016), receive an honorarium of $10,000 and support for the winner and a guest to attend the Annual Meeting.

NOMINATION DEADLINE
Wednesday, September 9, 2015, 4 p.m. U.S. ET

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

• Candidacy is open to all cancer researchers who are affiliated with any institution involved in cancer research, cancer medicine, or cancer-related biomedical science anywhere in the world. Such institutions include those in academia, industry, or government.

• The Award will be presented to an individual investigator.

• Institutions or organizations are not eligible for the Award.

• Selection of the Award winner will be made on the basis of the candidate’s achievements in clinical cancer research. No regard will be given to race, gender, nationality, geographic location, or religious or political views.

Nomination Process
Nominators are asked to maintain the confidentiality of the nomination process and to refrain from informing the candidate about the nomination. There is no restriction on the number of candidates that may be nominated by any institution or individual.

Nominations must be emailed to awards@aacr.org. Paper nominations cannot be accepted.
Nomination Materials

1) Nomination Letter Must:
   - be addressed to the Selection Committee; be written in English; and not exceed 1,000 words;
   - specify the AACR Award for which the candidate is being nominated;
   - contain a concise description of the candidate's outstanding achievements in clinical cancer research; publications supporting these contributions must be directly referenced within the letter;
   - contain a concise description of the impact of these contributions on the field; and
   - be signed with a handwritten signature by the nominator(s).

2) Candidate's CV. The candidate's curriculum vitae in English, including a complete list of the candidate's publications. Word (.doc) and PDF (.pdf) formatted files will be accepted.

3) Summary Statement. A statement, no more than 50 words, summarizing the candidate's research accomplishments for which he or she is being nominated.

Selection

Candidates will be considered by an Award Selection Committee appointed by the President of the AACR. After careful deliberations by the Award Committee, its recommendations will be forwarded to the Executive Committee of the AACR for final consideration and decision. Selection of the Award winner will be made on the basis of the candidate's scientific accomplishments without regard to race, gender, nationality, geographic location, or religious or political views.

Questions regarding eligibility of a candidate may be directed to the AACR Scientific Achievement Awards office at awards@aacr.org or call (215) 446-7128, prior to submitting an application.
