AACR G.H.A. Clowes Memorial Award

2020 Program Guidelines and Nomination Instructions
AWARD SUMMARY

The AACR and Eli Lilly and Company established this Award in 1961 to honor Dr. G.H.A. Clowes, who was a founding member of the AACR and a research director of Eli Lilly. The Clowes Award recognizes an individual with outstanding recent accomplishments in basic cancer research.

The winner of the AACR G.H.A. Clowes Memorial Award will receive a $10,000 honorarium, full support of the winner and a guest and give an award lecture during the AACR Annual Meeting 2020 in San Diego, California, USA.

Responsibilities of the Award Winner

The winner must also attend the AACR Awards Reception and Program as well as the AACR G.H.A. Clowes Memorial Award Reception both of which will be held at the AACR Annual Meeting 2020.

NOMINATION DEADLINE
Sunday, June 30, 2019.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Candidacy is open to all cancer researchers who are affiliated with any institution involved in cancer research, cancer medicine, or cancer-related biomedical science anywhere in the world. Such institutions include those in academia, industry, or government.
- The Award will be presented to an individual investigator.
- Institutions or organizations are not eligible for the Award.
- Selection of the Award winner will be made on the basis of the candidates’ recent accomplishments in basic cancer research. No regard will be given to race, gender, nationality, geographic location, or religious or political views.

Nomination Process

Nominators are asked to maintain the confidentiality of the nomination process and to refrain from informing the candidate about the nomination. There is no restriction on the number of candidates that may be nominated by any institution or individual.

Nominations must be submitted online at https://myaacr.aacr.org. Paper nominations cannot be accepted.
Nomination Materials

1) Nomination Letter Must:
   - be addressed to the Selection Committee; be written in English; and not exceed 1,000 words;
