TIPS & TRICKS FROM THE AACR EXHIBITOR ADVISORY COMMITTEE

• It is important to greet your neighbors! You never know when you may need their help.
• Take a look at the new exhibiting companies list and stop by their booth if you have time.
• Wear your optional “new exhibitor ribbon” so the EAC members can easily identify you and answer any questions you may have.
• Be inviting (from within your booth).
• Don’t have too much going on in the booth that scares people away.
• Give the traffic something to look at other than you, they’ll be drawn to motion, good graphics or graphics that make them question something. Don’t overdo!
• Investing in a compact display is worth it.
• Be sure you are clear on set up and break down times. Plan to arrive in advance, should you have delays in travel.
• Make your giveaways something people will use often.
• It is important to order your services by discount deadlines.
