ABOUT THE CONFERENCE ORGANIZERS

The AACR is the oldest and largest scientific organization in the world focused on every aspect of high-quality, innovative cancer research. Its reputation for scientific breadth and excellence attract the premier researchers in the field. The programs and services of the AACR foster the exchange of knowledge and new ideas among scientists dedicated to cancer research, provide training opportunities for the next generation of cancer researchers, and increase public understanding of cancer. The mission of the American Association for Cancer Research is to prevent and cure cancer through research, education, communication, and collaboration. Through its programs and services, the AACR fosters research in cancer and related biomedical science; accelerates the dissemination of new research findings among scientists and others dedicated to the conquest of cancer; promotes science education and training; and advances the understanding of cancer etiology, prevention, diagnosis, and treatment throughout the world.

The National Cancer Institute (NCI), founded in 1937, is the U.S. Federal Government’s principal agency for cancer research and training. As the nation’s leading federal agency for cancer research, NCI has 30 divisions, offices, and centers who work together to build, maintain, and enhance a cohesive and comprehensive cancer research agenda. Their work ranges from cutting-edge research on cancer causes, treatment, and prevention; to training the next generation of cancer researchers; to funding and supporting the nation’s vast network of scientists and cancer research institutions; to informing and educating the American public and the world about cancer.

The aims of the European Organization for Research and Treatment of Cancer (EORTC) are to develop, conduct, coordinate, and stimulate translational and clinical research in Europe to improve the management of cancer and related problems by increasing survival but also patient quality of life. Extensive and comprehensive research in this wide field is often beyond the means of individual European hospitals and can be best accomplished through the multidisciplinary multinational efforts of basic scientists and clinicians. The ultimate goal of the EORTC is to improve the standard of cancer treatment through the testing of more effective therapeutic strategies based on drugs, surgery and/or radiotherapy that are already in use. The EORTC also contributes to the development of new drugs and other innovative approaches in partnership with the pharmaceutical industry. This is accomplished mainly by conducting large, multicenter, prospective, randomized, phase III clinical trials. In this way, the EORTC facilitates the passage of experimental discoveries into state of the art treatments.
THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

This is an exciting time in basic science-based translational research in cancer. Don’t miss the opportunity to participate in this multidisciplinary meeting. Previous successful meetings were held in Germany in 2016, Boston in 2017, and Ireland in 2018.

An outstanding program is being assembled, which will capture the current challenges and enormous opportunities in this multifaceted area of applied cancer research. This premier international meeting on drug development and cutting-edge therapeutics is the major annual forum on drug development and cutting-edge therapeutics is the major annual forum for clinical investigators and laboratory scientists from all sectors to discuss the latest advances in this field. The rapid pace of discovery in molecular biology and genetics as it applies to cancer therapeutics makes this meeting a must to gain visibility and recognition for products, services, and important research advances! It is organized jointly by AACR, NCI, and EORTC; and held every other year in the U.S.

THE PARTICIPANTS

This multidisciplinary meeting will be attended by those who are leading the discovery and drug development effort against cancer worldwide. Overall, attendees at the Molecular Targets conference include senior level research scientists, heads of discovery and drug development from both industry and academia, as well as those in international and U.S. marketing of oncology products and those working on in-licensing and pipeline development.

The anticipated attendance is 2,000, nearly half of which will come from outside the U.S.; more than half from industry. At the last U.S. meeting, held in 2017, more than 50 companies sent scientific and management delegations. Leading scientists and administrators from NCI, FDA, and other governmental and regulatory agencies, along with a host of senior leaders from major academic research centers, cancer centers, and pharmaceutical and biotech companies in the U.S., Europe, and Asia will participate this year.

If an exhibitor is found to violate the rules governing affiliate events, they will forfeit priority points for the current year and face a stiff penalty.
CONVENTION, DISPLAY, AND TRADE SHOW LABOR REGULATIONS

Freeman, the AACR General Services Contractor, and qualified display contractors (Exhibitor Appointed Contractors) at the John B. Hynes Memorial Convention Center will use unionized labor to install and dismantle displays and decorations.

CONVENTION DISPLAY: JOHN B. HYNES MEMORIAL CONVENTION CENTER

Exhibitors and their agents must comply with all federal and local fire and building codes that apply to places of public assembly. Fire-fighting and emergency equipment may not be hidden or obstructed, including fire extinguishers, strobes, fire hose cabinets, Public Emergency Reporting System (PERS) stations and standpipes. Booth construction shall not block access to any fire/life safety equipment and shall not impede exit access, exit doors or aisle. All drapes, curtains, table coverings, skirts, carpet or any materials used in exhibits must be flame-retardant to meet with Boston Fire Department requirements and have flameproof certificate or tag. Certificates or tags must be prominently attached to the material used so they may be easily seen by the facility Fire Marshal. Exhibit contents or products and decorations provided by the official service contractor under the same guidelines, but may have detached flameproof certificates or tags. Additional information will be supplied in the Exhibitor Service Kit.

CONTRACT OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITY

The exhibitor agrees to protect, save, and keep the AACR, and the occupied John B. Hynes Memorial Convention Center forever harmless from any damage or charges imposed for violation of any law or ordinance by the exhibitor, his employees or agents as well as to strictly comply with the applicable terms and conditions contained in the agreement between the AACR and the occupied John B. Hynes Memorial Convention Center regarding the exhibition premises; and further, exhibitor shall at all times protect, indemnify, save, and keep harmless the AACR, and the occupied convention center against and from any and all loss, cost, damage, liability, or expense which arises out of or from or by reason of any act or omission by the exhibitor, his employees, or agents.

FIRE PROTECTION

All materials used in the exhibit area must be flameproof and fire resistant in order to conform to local fire ordinances and in accordance with regulations established by the National Association of Fire Underwriters. Crepe paper, corrugated paper, flameproof or otherwise, will not be permitted. Display racks, signs, spotlights and special equipment must be approved before use, and all displays are subject to inspection by the Fire Prevention Bureau. Any exhibits or parts thereof that are found not to be fireproof may be ordered dismantled. All aisles and exhibits must be kept clear at all times, and fire stations and fire extinguisher equipment are not to be covered or obstructed.
LABOR REGULATIONS AND SET UP OF EXHIBITS

The unpacking, assembling, dismantling, and packing of displays and equipment may be done by full-time employees of an exhibiting company. Exhibitors are allowed to set up and/or dismantle their own booths, provided that they use their own bona fide, full-time employees. It is acceptable for exhibitors to safely use power tools to set up and/or dismantle their own booths.

No one under the age of 18 is permitted on the loading docks, in truck bays, or in the loading dockyard. Additionally, no one under the age of 18 is permitted in the exhibit hall during move-in or move-out operations. The Licensee will determine age restrictions, if any, for hours when the exhibit hall is open for attendees.

HAND-CARRY POLICY

The Massachusetts Convention Center Authority (MCCA) reserves the right to restrict all freight and package deliveries to the loading dock. MCCA Public Safety personnel will be onsite to direct and assist exhibitors during move in and move out.

For the convenience and safety of exhibitors and patrons, all freight and material handling must enter and exit the facility through the loading dock. The Licensee and its exhibitors will be allowed to hand carry one item, one time, in or out of the facility without having to access the loading dock. (Hand carried freight is defined as one item that can be easily carried by an individual without the need for dollies or other mechanized equipment.)

No parking is allowed at the entrance of the facility; and the use of passenger elevators for movement of freight is not allowed. All packages are subject to inspection by facility personnel.

Hand-carried Freight: Move in or move out through The John B. Hynes Memorial Convention Center lobbies is strictly limited to hand-carried items. Wheels of any kind (dollies, flatbeds, or anything mechanical) are prohibited. Material that requires the use of wheeled or mechanical equipment must be delivered to the exhibit floor through the loading docks.

Freight Deliveries: The center cannot accept any freight or materials (including overnight freight services) prior to the contracted move-in date. The Official Service Contractor or freight carrier must deliver all freight, and all shipments delivered to our facilities during move in must be sent to the attention of Freeman.

PUBLIC SAFETY RECOMMENDATIONS

The MCCA is not liable for, nor does the MCCA carry any insurance on, Exhibitor property or fixtures. Please bear in mind that all of your exhibit material and displays are your property. Therefore, it is important that you take every precaution to protect this material. Below are some suggestions toward this end:

• Ship your materials with a qualified carrier and be sure to lock trunks/crates
• If cartons are used, be sure that they are securely taped or banded and under no circumstances marked with the name or type of articles contained therein
• Be sure to furnish your shipping company with an accurate account and complete bill of lading
• Do not leave your booth unattended during the set-up period
• Do not leave exhibit material under tables or displays
• Do not include exhibit material in containers to be stored with empties
• At the close of the exhibit, be sure to pack as quickly as possible and under no circumstances leave your space unattended during this period
• If at all possible, have one of your staff remain in your space with your shipment, until it is actually picked up by the drayage contractor’s personnel
• Promptly report any missing items or suspicious person(s) to Public Safety

EXCLUSIVE SERVICES

The John B. Hynes Memorial Convention Center and its contracted entities are the exclusive providers of the following services: food and beverage, cleaning, electrical, medical, business center, telephone, internet, rigging, the operation of ground-supported crank-ups, the operation and provision of lifts for theatrical purposes, plumbing, the use of the house sound system, and the supply of compressed airs and gases. Electricity, water, drain, air, telephone, audiovisual equipment, and floral will be available for rental by exhibitors. Order forms will be included in the Exhibitor Service Kit.
EXHIBITOR-APPOINTED CONTRACTORS

Exhibitors who plan to use the services of a display house/service firm for supervision other than the designated contractors must abide by the following:

1. The exhibitor shall notify AACR in writing by September 27, 2019 with the names of the display house/service firm, address, telephone number, and contact persons.

2. The display house/service firm must furnish to the AACR no later than September 27, 2019 with a copy of an insurance certificate in the amount of $2 million liability to include property damage. The Certificate must indicate full coverage for installation days, show days, and dismantling days.

3. Upon arrival at the exposition site, display house/service firms must check in with Official Service Contractor to receive work/ labor badges that will allow them access to the show floor.

4. Display house/service firms may not solicit business on the exhibit floor at any time.

5. Display house/service firms must follow all of the move-in and move-out rules in a timely and professional manner and must supervise work within the AACR established deadlines.

6. Display house/service firms must cooperate with the “official” designated contractors especially by not interfering with the sufficient use of an Official Service Contractor’s workers.

7. Display house/service firms may not set up a service desk in a “common area” unless approved in writing by AACR and Official Service Contractor. Such requests must be submitted to AACR no later than October 11, 2019. Display house/service firms are required to pay the costs of constructing the service desks if approved.

BOOTH CLEANING

Booth cleaning services are available. An order form for the custom cleaning of tile, carpet, and booths will be included in the Exhibitor Service Kit. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to make arrangements for booth cleaning.

AUDIO-VISUAL

If you need to rent audio-visual equipment (monitors etc.) for your exhibit booth, please use the show-appointed audio-visual vendor for your show. The rental price will be comparable to an outside company but the labor cost will be significantly lower if you use the appointed vendor. When an outside company comes into the building, they are required to use union labor at a four-hour minimum. The show-appointed AV vendor will be able to utilize labor in multiple booths, allowing you to be billed per hour rather than the four-hour minimum rate. When a non-appointed vendor comes into the facility, they are able to work in your booth only and must include the four-hour rate in your billing. These rules apply to the set up and dismantling of booths.

ELECTRICAL

Exhibitors cannot run cords under carpet. In addition, exhibitors can run cords over carpet as long as they are concealed and do not impose a trip hazard, i.e. side curtains or under tables with skirts. Only Underwriters Laboratories (UL) approved clamp-on types of portable spotlights are allowed. All display lights must be turned off when the exhibitor leaves for the day. Only UL-approved extension cords 12-gauge or greater rated for 20 amps are allowed. Note: Household extension cords are not permitted. These are generally 14- or 16-gauge and only rated at 15 amps.

FORCE LABOR

All exhibit materials must be unpacked and displays completed by 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 28, 2019 to permit the removal of empty crates and cartons from the exhibit floor. This will help expedite the time required for the laying of the aisle carpet and cleaning of the exhibit hall. Any exhibitor not unpacked and set up by this time will be ordered to be set up by the AACR – all costs incurred will be at the exhibitor’s expense.

All Supporters are acknowledged in advance publications to the extent possible, so the earlier you make your support commitment, the greater the visibility you will receive. In addition, Supporters are recognized with distinctive onsite signage displayed throughout the Molecular Targets meeting site. Supporters of scientific sessions are acknowledged on slides shown in session halls.

Sole support and shared support opportunities are available for each element of the Molecular Targets meeting with examples listed below. Interested companies are encouraged to contact AACR directly at the number noted below for further information about each available support opportunity listed.

Many of the specific Support Opportunities listed here include other unique recognition elements not detailed in this brochure. For more detailed information, Peter VanPelt at 215-440-9300, ext. 298 or by email at peter.vanpelt@aacr.org.
