

It is with great pleasure that I am serving as the Chair of the Minorities in Cancer Research Council for the 2022-2023 term. Members of the MICR Council are working to develop thought provoking and inspiring events that will engage members and support your scientific and professional development for the AACR Annual Meeting 2023.

We look forward to your participation in the AACR Annual Meeting 2023 and we are delighted to share with you some of the many ways you as a MICR member can get involved:

- MICR is seeking three new members for the 2023-2026 term. Apply today if you are interested in joining this committed leadership group.
- MICR Scholar Awards are open to Early Career and Minority Faculty Investigators. Apply today!
- Volunteer for MICR Committee Service
- Share your professional achievements or achievements of a colleague for the MICR member spotlight
- Encourage your colleagues or students to join the AACR and MICR

On behalf of the entire Council, MICR is proud to have you as a part of this ever-growing community of minority investigators. We look forward to meeting many of you at the AACR Annual Meeting 2023. Thank you for this amazing opportunity to serve and represent you.

See you in Orlando!
