The intent of this program is to support the development and diversity of promising talent working in pancreatic cancer research, particularly female investigators. Selection is competitive and will be based on outstanding accomplishments in scientific research, quality of the research proposal, and fit with the goals and mission of the Lustgarten Foundation.

FUNDING INFORMATION

This grant provides $300,000 over three years.

IMPORTANT DATES

Submission Deadline	November 20, 2026, at 1:00 p.m. U.S. Eastern Time*

Start of Grant Term	July 1, 2027

* Please confirm the time in your local time zone using a time zone converter.

RESEARCH PROJECT CRITERIA

This Award represents a joint effort to encourage and support early career scientists engaged in pancreatic cancer research relevant to the goals and mission of the Lustgarten Foundation. The proposed project may be basic, translational, clinical, or population sciences related research and must have direct applicability and relevance to the understanding, detection, diagnosis, or treatment of pancreatic cancer. Applications are invited from researchers currently in the field as well as investigators with experience in other areas of cancer or biomedical research who have promising ideas and approaches that can be applied to pancreatic cancer research.

Grantees supported through this Program will have the opportunity to interact and/or collaborate with other investigators from the network of Lustgarten Foundation-funded investigators and laboratories as well as leading investigators in the AACR's grantee community.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

All applicants with questions about eligibility should contact the AACR's Research and Grants Administration at grants@aacr.org before submitting an application.

By the submission deadline, applicants must be AACR members in the Active Membership category in good standing (dues paid for the current year):

- Information on AACR membership, including membership categories, due rates, and steps for lapsed or nonmembers, can be accessed on our membership website.
- Assistance with membership can be requested by submitting a myAACR help form or by contacting our Membership Department at membership@aacr.org
- Applicants whose membership is not in good standing or nonmembers who do not apply for membership by the submission deadline will be considered ineligible.

By the submission deadline, applicants must be a member of the Women in Cancer Research (WICR) constituency group.

- AACR members who wish to join WICR should log in to the AACR Membership Portal and navigate to the “Groups” tab. Before selecting a constituency group, members should ensure that their profile information including name, degree, research interests, and other relevant details is accurate and up to date. Once the profile is complete, members can select their desired constituency group. Please note that membership in these groups must be renewed annually, in conjunction with AACR membership renewal.

At the start of the grant term (July 1, 2027), applicants must:

- Have a doctoral degree (PhD, MD, MD/PhD, or equivalent) in a related field.
- Hold a faculty position with the title of assistant professor, instructor, research assistant professor, or the equivalent.
 - If eligibility is based on a future position, the position must be confirmed at the time of submission and CANNOT be contingent upon receiving this grant. Applicants are advised to contact the AACR’s Research and Grants Administration (RGA) at grants@aacr.org before submission to confirm they will hold an eligible position.
- Have started their first independent faculty position within the past 6 years from the start of the grant term (i.e., employment start date of July 1, 2027, or later, as indicated on the employment offer letter). Exceptions to the 6-year window may be granted for up to 12 months of parental or justified personal/family leave. Applicants exceeding the 6-year limit who believe they are eligible must contact the AACR’s RGA before submitting their application.
- Have independent laboratory space as confirmed by their institution.
- Work at an academic, medical, or research institution anywhere in the world.
 - There are no citizenship or geographic requirements. However, by submitting an application for this grant, applicants applying from an institution in a country where they are not a citizen or permanent resident confirm that their work status will allow them to complete the project and grant term.

At the start of the grant term (July 1, 2027), applicants cannot:

- Be a candidate for a further doctoral degree.
- Be an employee or subcontractor of a U.S. federal government entity or for-profit private industry. They may serve as collaborators, but no grant funds may be directed toward these individuals.
- Concurrently hold another AACR grant.
 - Current AACR grantees may apply only if their current grant ends before the start of the grant term for this funding opportunity (i.e., July 1, 2027). Also, the terms of their current grant must stipulate that the final progress reports be approved by the AACR before July 1, 2027.
- Be, or have been, a Principal Investigator on a substantial independent research award (e.g., an NIH R01 award, DP2 award, DP5 award, MIRA award, or the equivalent). These individuals are invited to apply for AACR grants for independent investigators.
 - For the purposes of this grant, a substantial independent research award is defined as a grant that offers at least $250,000 (direct) per year for more than three years and must have undergone a peer-review process by active researchers and physician-scientists.

Investigators may submit only one application for this funding opportunity but may concurrently apply for other AACR grants. However, applicants are expected to accept the first grant they are awarded.

Individuals may accept and hold only one AACR grant at a time.

AACR is obligated to comply with U.S. laws and regulations regarding research and related transactions in countries subject to US Government enforcement of economic and trade sanctions for particular foreign policy and national security reasons. If your proposed project involves US Government sanctioned countries subject to restrictions, please contact the AACR's RGA at grants@aacr.org.

TRAVEL

Grant recipient must attend the Annual Grantee Recognition Event held during the AACR Annual Meeting 2027 to formally accept their grant. Grant funds may be used to support the grantee's registration and travel to this event.

Grant recipient is expected to attend one AACR Grantee Summit during the grant term, as participation provides valuable opportunities that enhance the grant experience. If scheduling conflicts arise, AACR will work with you to find a suitable solution. Grant funds may be used to support the grantee's attendance to this event.

See item 10 of the Application Materials for details on travel funds. In the event of unforeseen scheduling changes, the Grantee will be contacted regarding alternative arrangements.

EVALUATION OF APPLICATIONS

Applications will be peer-reviewed by a Scientific Review Committee comprised of researchers and physician-scientists respected for their own accomplishments in pancreatic cancer research and viewed as leaders in the field. The President of the AACR will appoint the members of the Scientific Review Committee.

The Committee will consider the following criteria when reviewing applications:

The Committee will consider each year's applicants independent of previously funded proposals and the institutions of previous grantees.

TOBACCO INDUSTRY FUNDING AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST STATEMENT

Scientists and health professionals funded by the tobacco industry for any research project are not eligible for any AACR grant. An applicant who accepts funding from the tobacco industry for any research project during the term of an AACR grant must inform AACR of such funding, whereupon the AACR grant will be immediately terminated.

Tobacco industry funding is defined for purposes of AACR grant applicants and recipients as money provided or used for all or any of the costs of any research project, including personnel, consumables, equipment, buildings, travel, meetings and conferences, and operating costs for laboratories and offices. It is not defined as money provided or used for meetings or conferences that do not relate to a particular research project.

Tobacco industry funding includes: funds from a company that is engaged in or has affiliates engaged in the manufacture of tobacco produced for human use; funds in the name of a tobacco brand, whether or not the brand name is used solely for tobacco products; funds from a body set up by the tobacco industry or by one or more companies engaged in the manufacture of tobacco products.

The following do not constitute tobacco industry funding for the purposes of this policy:

- Legacies from tobacco industry investments (unless the names of a tobacco company or cigarette brand are associated with them)
- Funding from a trust or foundation established with assets related to the tobacco industry but no longer having any connection with the tobacco industry even though it may bear a name that (for historical reasons) is associated with the tobacco industry

MORE ABOUT THE PARTNERS

Since the Lustgarten Foundation was established in 1998, they have been committed to changing outcomes so patients have a better chance for long-term survival. From basic science to the clinic, our funded researchers are investigating ways to detect the disease earlier, personalize treatment and develop better therapies. The intent of this program is to support the development and diversification of talent working in pancreatic cancer research. This program will support early-career, faculty-level researchers to pursue projects of high relevance to the mission of the Lustgarten Foundation in one of the categories below. Visit www.lustgarten.org to learn more.

Founded in 1907, the American Association for Cancer Research (AACR) is the world's first and largest professional organization dedicated to advancing cancer research and its mission to prevent and cure cancer. AACR membership includes more than 65,000 laboratory, translational, and clinical researchers; population scientists; other health care professionals; and patient advocates residing in 143 countries and territories around the world. Presently, 33% of members live outside the United States and 24% of AACR's international members are located in countries building cancer research capacity. The AACR offers seven categories of membership to support each aspect of our members' professional development and enhancement in cancer research. In support of the professional development of early-career researchers, no annual dues are required for Associate membership. The AACR marshals the full spectrum of expertise of the cancer community to accelerate progress in the prevention, biology, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer by annually convening more than 30 conferences and educational workshops, the largest of which is the AACR Annual Meeting with more than 22,500 attendees. The AACR's Virtual 2020 Annual Meeting attracted over 74,000 attendees. In addition, the AACR publishes ten prestigious, peer-reviewed scientific journals and a magazine for cancer survivors, patients, and their caregivers. The AACR funds meritorious research directly as well as in cooperation with numerous cancer organizations. As the Scientific Partner of Stand Up To Cancer, the AACR provides expert peer review, grants administration, and scientific oversight of team science and individual investigator grants in cancer research that have the potential for near-term patient benefit. The AACR actively communicates with legislators and other policymakers about the value of cancer research and related biomedical science in saving lives from cancer.
